

Ms. Rosemary Oglesby-Henry

Kevin Farmer, PR/Media Relations
(513) 658-7348
thepetalsincorporation.com

2023

A Christian Super-Leader

Ms. Rosemary Oglesby-Henry is a native Cincinnati. Rosemary started her adult life as a teen parent but used her struggle, strong faith in God, social support, and self-motivation to heal and help others to do the same. Oglesby-Henry is a bridge-builder, nationally known leadership educator, author, philanthropist, and award-winning founder/ CEO of an impact organization (501c3) committed to helping teen parents master the concepts of self-leadership to leave a legacy.

Ms. Oglesby-Henry's work has been published in three magazines including Forbes and four novels. She is featured in the 2022 Documentary Short, Worth One's Salt by Producer Dr. Dretona Maddox, a social impact film that focuses on barriers to health equity in maternal health for black pregnant teens.

She has received more than (40) forty honors and recognitions for her leadership and philanthropy throughout her career. She has shared her story and her organization's mission as a speaker and panelist at conferences, events, and across international and local media outlets to millions. She has been quoted in numerous magazines and on platforms for her advocacy positions related to education, Youth Pregnancy & Parenthood Awareness, and maternal health. Ms. Rosemary has been a member of more than 10 boards local and state.

Over two decades Rosemary, an entrepreneur, has used her business acumen to mentor and consult with more than 50 small businesses and non-profits to start, expand programs, and increase revenue by more than 50% estimated cumulative at $200,000.

500 Most Influential & Powerful Ohioans

Forbes Cincinnati Leading Women in Business

Ohio Senate Award Recognition by House of Representatives

COMMON SUBMISSION QUESTIONS

Publisher Trilogy Christian Publishing
Publication Date November 22, 2022
Binding Type Quality Paperback
Distributor Ingram Book Distributor
Distributor Costs maximum $8.30

Publisher Kindle Publishing Company
Publication Date October 24, 2022
Binding Type Quality Paperback
Distributor Ingram Book Distributor
Distributor Costs maximum $11.00

Classification | Short Read. Inspirational. Focused on girls, women, and mothers. Trauma. Purpose. Leadership Concepts. Women Christian Living. Christian Inspiration. Black Woman Authors.

Classification | Journal. Personal transformation. Self-help. Coloring pages. Prayer. Affirmations. Goal-setting.

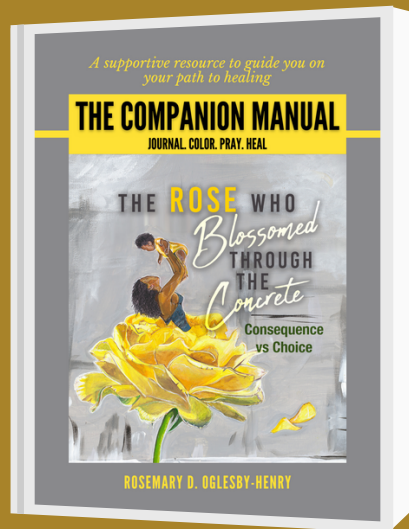

Reviews ★★★★★

ISBN | 979-8887381312 $13.99 | 96 pages

Oblivious and unconcerned with what was happening, I allowed the pitfalls of life to form in what I thought was a perfect garden. I learned that you cannot mend a spiritual wound with human tools. Thus, God left my garden covered by concrete.

The Rose Who Blossomed Through the Concrete calls on girls, women, and mothers to hone their failing faith into spiritual growth and healing. The power of this novel lies within the heart and soul of the author, Rosemary, who uses her testimony to inspire each of us to view our choices and our consequences as new opportunities to draw us closer to God, find our purpose, and blossom.

Reviews ★★★★★

ISBN | XXXXXXXXX $19.99 | 79 pages

The Rose Who Blossomed Through the Concrete calls on girls, women, and mothers to hone their failing faith into spiritual growth and healing. The power of this novel lies within the heart and soul of the author, Rosemary, who uses her testimony to inspire each of us to view our choices and our consequences as new opportunities to draw us closer to God, find our purpose, and blossom.

Rosemary created The Companion Manual as a supportive resource to guide you on your path to healing. But more, to sow seeds of inspiration to help each of us break through the concrete.

Kevin Farmer, PR/Media Relations
(513) 658-7348 | madeyoulookpromotions@gmail.com
thepetalsincorporation.com

Book rates direct purchase from Author negotiable based on quantity*